On the island of Cavallo's southernmost tip, this seasonal white sand beachfront retreat boasts bold use of local stone to build up an alluring blend of rough-hewn charm with clean-cut modern comforts. An array of rooms and suites comprise the accommodations, beige and blue accented spaces that enhance the rugged oceanic setting of the resort – though take note that only one of the suites offers a sea view. Yacht moorings (up to 35 metres) are possible at the nearby Port of Cavallo and myriad excursions on offer from the hotel include a short hop back to Corsica for the Robert Trent Jones-designed Seperone Golf Course.
